Examples of discretion in a Sentence Though it is worth noting that to live in a place where other people come just for pleasure has the odd effect of making me feel transient, while the visitors seem more fixed and permanent in their lives, coming as they do from more conventional homes far away.

Discretion | Definition of Discretion by Merriam-Webster
Discretion is an undoing of the creature in us—that creature enclosed in self and defined by self. But to undo self one must move through self, to the very inside [End Page 202] of its definition. We have nowhere else to start. This is the parchment on which God writes his lessons, as Marguerite Porete says.

Acephalix: Decreation Album Review | Pitchfork
It's a nuisance to me as a reviewer that Acephalix's third record Decreation, being one composed entirely of crusty Swe-death, is a clear symptom of this larger problem. Being a crusty Swe-death record, Decreation draws heavily on Entombed , Dismember , Nihilist , Grave , and the like, with the modern touch of Black Breath and their ilk.
