Isle of Passion by Laura Restrepo (2006, Perfect) for sale ...

The Colombian author's previously untranslated 1999 debut novel is arguably her best: a ripping yarn that recreates an obscure historical incident. In 1908, half-French Mexican Army officer Ramón Arnaud, who had been disciplined and cashiered for insubordination and cowardice, was sent to act as lieutenant governor on remote Clipperton Island. That outpost—named for a notorious English pirate who had sheltered there (and previously dubbed "Isle of Passion" by the celebrated voyager ...

ISLE OF PASSION by Laura Restrepo , Dolores M. Koch ...

As a child, I enjoyed stories like Robinson Crusoe about life on a desert island. Being marooned became a colorful part of my fantasy life. Last month, I came across Isle of Passion and was both thrilled by this true story with its heroes and villains and amazed at the hardships the survivors overcame.
