Susane Colasanti - Keep Holding On

Keep Holding On is a bit of a departure from her previous novels because it focuses on Noelle's treatment at school and her damaging home life. While perhaps a third of the book revolves around Noelle's makeout partner Matt, who wants her to be his "secret girlfriend," as well as Noelle's crush on Julian, whom she feels is too good for her, romance does not drive the entire plotline.

Keep Holding On is about Noelle, a girl who is bullied at school for being poor. It's clear that Ms. Colasanti has experienced bullying and I'm sorry that she has. It's also equally clear that she has no idea what it's like to be truly poor, and as someone who grew up poor, and who works as a librarian in a town where there are teens in the same situation This may be the most rage-inducing book I've ever read. EVER.
