Prior Bad Acts Kovac Liska

Tami Hoag's books just seem to get better and better. Her characters even seem to get better and better. Prior Bad Acts is no exception. Liska and Kovac are two of my favorite Hoag characters. They are Minneapolis cops. A lady has been brutally murdered. There is immediately a suspect who is no stranger to the law. The dragnet begins.

This is my third Tami Hoag book and it was a disappointment. My first Kovac/Liska book, Dust to Dust, was great. I loved these two together so I got Prior Bad Acts. The premise was very good and it was fast moving, but Kovac and Liska were rarely together. He was working one angle, she was working another angle, and that was disappointing.
