Safe Word(18) Teresa Mummert “There is the downstairs bathroom, which you already know.” Thinking of how she had run to find a first-aid kit for Amber, not knowing who she was to me or why she was in my home, made my heart swell with more love for this woman. I grabbed the shaky banister and began to climb the steep, wooden staircase.

“Let’s run like we had always planned. Let me get you somewhere safe.” I closed the gap between us. “Please.” She slowly raised her eyes to meet mine as she thought it over. “I don’t know if running will solve our problems.” “I’ll get you somewhere safe and I’ll fix this. You have to let me try. I can’t let you go
