Ulnar nerve entrapment occurs when there's extra pressure placed on your ulnar nerve in your arm. We'll go over the treatment options and give you some exercises to try on your own that may ...

Ulnar Nerve Entrapment: Symptoms, Causes Exercises, and ...

This nerve can cause an electric shock-like sensation by striking the medial epicondyle of the humerus from posteriorly, or inferiorly with the elbow flexed. The ulnar nerve is trapped between the bone and the overlying skin at this point. This is commonly referred to as bumping one's "funny bone". This name is thought to be a pun, based on the sound resemblance between the name of the bone of the upper arm, the "humerus", and the word "humorous". Alternatively, according to the Oxford English D
