The Nibelungenlied (try to say that in one breath) is an epic poem, written about A.D. 1200. As with the Iliad the translator makes the biggest impact; so, it may be necessary to read several translations to find the one that resonates. In the Iliad Homer chose a snippet of time of the war at Ilium.

Le Fantôme de l'Opera (first published as a serial 1909-1910) is not only a gothic horror story but also a paeon to and a parody of grand opéra, the spectacle that was an important part of Parisian society for much of the nineteenth century. Before Gaston Leroux turned to writing fiction full time, he was a lawyer, an international correspondent and...a theater critic.
