Words From A Wanderer Notes

Words From A Wanderer is a compilation of notes and poetry. This book was created with hopes of uplifting and encouraging readers in many ways. "I started writing notes to myself because a little self-love can go a long way." So from the description this sounded like an incredibly timely and beautiful book, but I ended up pretty disappointed.

The Wanderer Summary. The first speaker in the poem introduces us to a "lone-dweller," whom he says is hoping for God's mercy and favor despite being condemned to travel alone over an ice-cold sea. He says the lines that follow as the speech of an "earth-stepper," who is probably this same "lone-dweller" we've just met. The earth-stepper now steps in.

The word translated here as "ghastly," gastlice, means both "ghost-like" and "awful" in Old English. It's a pun that expresses both the terribleness inherent in a deserted, abandoned earth, and the absence of the human souls whose memories now haunt it like ghosts. The wine-halls molder, the wielder lies down
